A little story

The Dala Horse, Sweden's Lucky Little Horse

The Dala horse is a traditional wooden horse from Dalarna, Sweden. Hand-carved and painted in bright red with colorful floral patterns, it was originally made as a simple toy for children. Over the years, this charming little horse became one of Sweden's most beloved cultural symbols. Today, the Dala horse is treasured as a symbol of happiness, good luck, and the warmth of Swedish tradition.
